WELCOME TO ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH, SHIPHAY

'A caring fellowship seeking to share the life and love of God'

Sunday 8 November 2026

Good morning, everyone, and a very warm welcome to you all.
Today, on Remembrance Sunday, we gather to remember with gratitude all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, those who have suffered through conflict, and those who continue to serve today.
We give thanks for their courage and sacrifice and pray for peace in our troubled world.
We are glad you have chosen to come along to this service especially if this is your first visit to St. John's.
We really hope you will stay and join us for Fairtrade coffee and refreshments after the service this morning.
We express our grateful thanks to
The 3rd Torbay (Shiphay) Scout Group
for their participation and support in this Remembrance Service.

Music

	For the healing of the nations	186
	How deep the Father's love for us
Offertory	I, the Lord of sea and sky	332
	Be thou my vision	70
	ACT OF REMEMBRANCE
	And did those feet in ancient time	33
	The National Anthem

Reading
John 15:9-17

9 'As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. 10 If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love. 11 I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. 12 My command is this: love each other as I have loved you. 13 Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends. 14 You are my friends if you do what I command. 15 I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you. 16 You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit – fruit that will last – and so that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you. 17 This is my command: love each other.

"They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn,
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We shall remember them"

Suggestions for your prayers/praise
On this Remembrance Sunday, we come together in gratitude and reflection. We remember with deep respect all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, and those who continue to live with the pain and scars of conflict. We pray for their families, for all who have served, and for those who suffer through war and violence today. May we never take peace for granted. Help us to be people of compassion, forgiveness and understanding, and guide us to work for a world where justice and peace may flourish. Amen.

WELCOME TO ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH, SHIPHAY

'A caring fellowship seeking to share the life and love of God'

Sunday 8 November 2026

Good morning, everyone, and a very warm welcome to you all.
Today, on Remembrance Sunday, we gather to remember with gratitude all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, those who have suffered through conflict, and those who continue to serve today.
We give thanks for their courage and sacrifice and pray for peace in our troubled world.
We are glad you have chosen to come along to this service especially if this is your first visit to St. John's.
We really hope you will stay and join us for Fairtrade coffee and refreshments after the service this morning.
We express our grateful thanks to
The 3rd Torbay (Shiphay) Scout Group
for their participation and support in this Remembrance Service.

Music

	For the healing of the nations	186
	How deep the Father's love for us
Offertory	I, the Lord of sea and sky	332
	Be thou my vision	70
	ACT OF REMEMBRANCE
	And did those feet in ancient time	33
	The National Anthem

Reading
John 15:9-17

9 'As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. 10 If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love. 11 I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. 12 My command is this: love each other as I have loved you. 13 Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends. 14 You are my friends if you do what I command. 15 I no longer call
you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you. 16 You did not choose me,
but I chose you and appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit – fruit that will last – and so
that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you. 17 This is my command: love each other.

"They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn,
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We shall remember them"

Suggestions for your prayers/praise
On this Remembrance Sunday, we come together in gratitude and reflection. We remember with deep respect all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, and those who continue to live with the pain and scars of conflict. We pray for their families, for all who have served, and for those who suffer through war and violence today. May we never take peace for granted. Help us to be people of compassion, forgiveness and understanding, and guide us to work for a world where justice and peace may flourish. Amen.

WELCOME TO ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH, SHIPHAY

'A caring fellowship seeking to share the life and love of God'

Sunday 8 November 2026

Good morning, everyone, and a very warm welcome to you all.
Today, on Remembrance Sunday, we gather to remember with gratitude all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, those who have suffered through conflict, and those who continue to serve today.
We give thanks for their courage and sacrifice and pray for peace in our troubled world.
We are glad you have chosen to come along to this service especially if this is your first visit to St. John's.
We really hope you will stay and join us for Fairtrade coffee and refreshments after the service this morning.
We express our grateful thanks to
The 3rd Torbay (Shiphay) Scout Group
for their participation and support in this Remembrance Service.

Music

	For the healing of the nations	186
	How deep the Father's love for us
Offertory	I, the Lord of sea and sky	332
	Be thou my vision	70
	ACT OF REMEMBRANCE
	And did those feet in ancient time	33
	The National Anthem

Reading
John 15:9-17

9 'As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. 10 If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love. 11 I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. 12 My command is this: love each other as I have loved you. 13 Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends. 14 You are my friends if you do what I command. 15 I no longer call
you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you. 16 You did not choose me,
but I chose you and appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit – fruit that will last – and so
that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you. 17 This is my command: love each other.

"They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn,
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We shall remember them"

Suggestions for your prayers/praise
On this Remembrance Sunday, we come together in gratitude and reflection. We remember with deep respect all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, and those who continue to live with the pain and scars of conflict. We pray for their families, for all who have served, and for those who suffer through war and violence today. May we never take peace for granted. Help us to be people of compassion, forgiveness and understanding, and guide us to work for a world where justice and peace may flourish. Amen.

We remember with deep respect all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, and those who continue to live with the pain and scars of conflict. We pray for their families, for all who have served, and for those who suffer through war and violence today. May we never take peace for granted. Help us to be people of compassion, forgiveness and understanding, and guide us to work for a world where justice and peace may flourish. Amen.

WELCOME TO ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH, SHIPHAY

'A caring fellowship seeking to share the life and love of God'

Sunday 8 November 2026

Good morning, everyone, and a very warm welcome to you all.
Today, on Remembrance Sunday, we gather to remember with gratitude all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, those who have suffered through conflict, and those who continue to serve today.
We give thanks for their courage and sacrifice and pray for peace in our troubled world.
We are glad you have chosen to come along to this service especially if this is your first visit to St. John's.
We really hope you will stay and join us for Fairtrade coffee and refreshments after the service this morning.
We express our grateful thanks to
The 3rd Torbay (Shiphay) Scout Group
for their participation and support in this Remembrance Service.

Music

	For the healing of the nations	186
	How deep the Father's love for us
Offertory	I, the Lord of sea and sky	332
	Be thou my vision	70
	ACT OF REMEMBRANCE
	And did those feet in ancient time	33
	The National Anthem

Reading
John 15:9-17

9 'As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. 10 If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love. 11 I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. 12 My command is this: love each other as I have loved you. 13 Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends. 14 You are my friends if you do what I command. 15 I no longer call
you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you. 16 You did not choose me,
but I chose you and appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit – fruit that will last – and so
that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you. 17 This is my command: love each other.

"They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn,
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We shall remember them"

Suggestions for your prayers/praise
On this Remembrance Sunday, we come together in gratitude and reflection. We remember with deep respect all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, and those who continue to live with the pain and scars of conflict. We pray for their families, for all who have served, and for those who suffer through war and violence today. May we never take peace for granted. Help us to be people of compassion, forgiveness and understanding, and guide us to work for a world where justice and peace may flourish. Amen.

WELCOME TO ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH, SHIPHAY

'A caring fellowship seeking to share the life and love of God'

Sunday 8 November 2026

Good morning, everyone, and a very warm welcome to you all.
Today, on Remembrance Sunday, we gather to remember with gratitude all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, those who have suffered through conflict, and those who continue to serve today.
We give thanks for their courage and sacrifice and pray for peace in our troubled world.
We are glad you have chosen to come along to this service especially if this is your first visit to St. John's.
We really hope you will stay and join us for Fairtrade coffee and refreshments after the service this morning.
We express our grateful thanks to
The 3rd Torbay (Shiphay) Scout Group
for their participation and support in this Remembrance Service.

Music

	For the healing of the nations	186
	How deep the Father's love for us
Offertory	I, the Lord of sea and sky	332
	Be thou my vision	70
	ACT OF REMEMBRANCE
	And did those feet in ancient time	33
	The National Anthem

Reading
John 15:9-17

9 'As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. 10 If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love. 11 I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. 12 My command is this: love each other as I have loved you. 13 Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends. 14 You are my friends if you do what I command. 15 I no longer call
you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you. 16 You did not choose me,
but I chose you and appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit – fruit that will last – and so
that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you. 17 This is my command: love each other.

"They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn,
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We shall remember them"

Suggestions for your prayers/praise
On this Remembrance Sunday, we come together in gratitude and reflection. We remember with deep respect all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, and those who continue to live with the pain and scars of conflict. We pray for their families, for all who have served, and for those who suffer through war and violence today. May we never take peace for granted. Help us to be people of compassion, forgiveness and understanding, and guide us to work for a world where justice and peace may flourish. Amen.

WELCOME TO ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH, SHIPHAY

'A caring fellowship seeking to share the life and love of God'

Sunday 8 November 2026

Good morning, everyone, and a very warm welcome to you all.
Today, on Remembrance Sunday, we gather to remember with gratitude all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, those who have suffered through conflict, and those who continue to serve today.
We give thanks for their courage and sacrifice and pray for peace in our troubled world.
We are glad you have chosen to come along to this service especially if this is your first visit to St. John's.
We really hope you will stay and join us for Fairtrade coffee and refreshments after the service this morning.
We express our grateful thanks to
The 3rd Torbay (Shiphay) Scout Group
for their participation and support in this Remembrance Service.

Music

	For the healing of the nations	186
	How deep the Father's love for us
Offertory	I, the Lord of sea and sky	332
	Be thou my vision	70
	ACT OF REMEMBRANCE
	And did those feet in ancient time	33
	The National Anthem

Reading
John 15:9-17

9 'As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. 10 If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love. 11 I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. 12 My command is this: love each other as I have loved you. 13 Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends. 14 You are my friends if you do what I command. 15 I no longer call
you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you. 16 You did not choose me,
but I chose you and appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit – fruit that will last – and so
that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you. 17 This is my command: love each other.

"They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn,
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We shall remember them"

Suggestions for your prayers/praise
On this Remembrance Sunday, we come together in gratitude and reflection. We remember with deep respect all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, and those who continue to live with the pain and scars of conflict. We pray for their families, for all who have served, and for those who suffer through war and violence today. May we never take peace for granted. Help us to be people of compassion, forgiveness and understanding, and guide us to work for a world where justice and peace may flourish. Amen.

WELCOME TO ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH, SHIPHAY

'A caring fellowship seeking to share the life and love of God'

Sunday 8 November 2026

Good morning, everyone, and a very warm welcome to you all.
Today, on Remembrance Sunday, we gather to remember with gratitude all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, those who have suffered through conflict, and those who continue to serve today.
We give thanks for their courage and sacrifice and pray for peace in our troubled world.
We are glad you have chosen to come along to this service especially if this is your first visit to St. John's.
We really hope you will stay and join us for Fairtrade coffee and refreshments after the service this morning.
We express our grateful thanks to
The 3rd Torbay (Shiphay) Scout Group
for their participation and support in this Remembrance Service.

Music

	For the healing of the nations	186
	How deep the Father's love for us
Offertory	I, the Lord of sea and sky	332
	Be thou my vision	70
	ACT OF REMEMBRANCE
	And did those feet in ancient time	33
	The National Anthem

Reading
John 15:9-17

9 'As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. 10 If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love. 11 I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. 12 My command is this: love each other as I have loved you. 13 Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends. 14 You are my friends if you do what I command. 15 I no longer call
you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you. 16 You did not choose me,
but I chose you and appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit – fruit that will last – and so that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you. 17 This is my command: love each other.

"They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn,
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We shall remember them"

Suggestions for your prayers/praise
On this Remembrance Sunday, we come together in gratitude and reflection. We remember with deep respect all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, and those who continue to live with the pain and scars of conflict. We pray for their families, for all who have served, and for those who suffer through war and violence today. May we never take peace for granted. Help us to be people of compassion, forgiveness and understanding, and guide us to work for a world where justice and peace may flourish. Amen.

WELCOME TO ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH, SHIPHAY

'A caring fellowship seeking to share the life and love of God'

Sunday 8 November 2026

Good morning, everyone, and a very warm welcome to you all.
Today, on Remembrance Sunday, we gather to remember with gratitude all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, those who have suffered through conflict, and those who continue to serve today.
We give thanks for their courage and sacrifice and pray for peace in our troubled world.
We are glad you have chosen to come along to this service especially if this is your first visit to St. John's.
We really hope you will stay and join us for Fairtrade coffee and refreshments after the service this morning.
We express our grateful thanks to
The 3rd Torbay (Shiphay) Scout Group
for their participation and support in this Remembrance Service.

Music

	For the healing of the nations	186
	How deep the Father's love for us
Offertory	I, the Lord of sea and sky	332
	Be thou my vision	70
	ACT OF REMEMBRANCE
	And did those feet in ancient time	33
	The National Anthem

Reading
John 15:9-17

9 'As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. 10 If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love. 11 I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. 12 My command is this: love each other as I have loved you. 13 Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends. 14 You are my friends if you do what I command. 15 I no longer call
you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you. 16 You did not choose me,
but I chose you and appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit – fruit that will last – and so
that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you. 17 This is my command: love each other.

"They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn,
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We shall remember them"

Suggestions for your prayers/praise
On this Remembrance Sunday, we come together in gratitude and reflection. We remember with deep respect all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, and those who continue to live with the pain and scars of conflict. We pray for their families, for all who have served, and for those who suffer through war and violence today. May we never take peace for granted. Help us to be people of compassion, forgiveness and understanding, and guide us to work for a world where justice and peace may flourish. Amen.

WELCOME TO ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH, SHIPHAY

'A caring fellowship seeking to share the life and love of God'

Sunday 8 November 2026

Good morning, everyone, and a very warm welcome to you all.
Today, on Remembrance Sunday, we gather to remember with gratitude all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, those who have suffered through conflict, and those who continue to serve today.
We give thanks for their courage and sacrifice and pray for peace in our troubled world.
We are glad you have chosen to come along to this service especially if this is your first visit to St. John's.
We really hope you will stay and join us for Fairtrade coffee and refreshments after the service this morning.
We express our grateful thanks to
The 3rd Torbay (Shiphay) Scout Group
for their participation and support in this Remembrance Service.

Music

	For the healing of the nations	186
	How deep the Father's love for us
Offertory	I, the Lord of sea and sky	332
	Be thou my vision	70
	ACT OF REMEMBRANCE
	And did those feet in ancient time	33
	The National Anthem

Reading
John 15:9-17

9 'As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. 10 If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love. 11 I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. 12 My command is this: love each other as I have loved you. 13 Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends. 14 You are my friends if you do what I command. 15 I no longer call
you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you. 16 You did not choose me,
but I chose you and appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit – fruit that will last – and so that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you. 17 This is my command: love each other.

"They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn,
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We shall remember them"

Suggestions for your prayers/praise
On this Remembrance Sunday, we come together in gratitude and reflection. We remember with deep respect all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, and those who continue to live with the pain and scars of conflict. We pray for their families, for all who have served, and for those who suffer through war and violence today. May we never take peace for granted. Help us to be people of compassion, forgiveness and understanding, and guide us to work for a world where justice and peace may flourish. Amen.

WELCOME TO ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH, SHIPHAY

'A caring fellowship seeking to share the life and love of God'

Sunday 8 November 2026

Good morning, everyone, and a very warm welcome to you all.
Today, on Remembrance Sunday, we gather to remember with gratitude all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, those who have suffered through conflict, and those who continue to serve today.
We give thanks for their courage and sacrifice and pray for peace in our troubled world.
We are glad you have chosen to come along to this service especially if this is your first visit to St. John's.
We really hope you will stay and join us for Fairtrade coffee and refreshments after the service this morning.
We express our grateful thanks to
The 3rd Torbay (Shiphay) Scout Group
for their participation and support in this Remembrance Service.

Music

	For the healing of the nations	186
	How deep the Father's love for us
Offertory	I, the Lord of sea and sky	332
	Be thou my vision	70
	ACT OF REMEMBRANCE
	And did those feet in ancient time	33
	The National Anthem

Reading
John 15:9-17

9 'As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. 10 If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love. 11 I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. 12 My command is this: love each other as I have loved you. 13 Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends. 14 You are my friends if you do what I command. 15 I no longer call
you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you. 16 You did not choose me,
but I chose you and appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit – fruit that will last – and so that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you. 17 This is my command: love each other.

"They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn,
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We shall remember them"

that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you. 17 This is my command: love each other.

"They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn,
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We shall remember them"

Our Annual Service of Remembrance of Our Loved Ones Lost will take place on Sunday 22 November at 16.00.
Everyone is warmly invited to join us for a special service of Remembrance, as we come together to honour and celebrate the lives of those we have lost.
Please put your loved ones name/s on the list at the back of church if you will be coming along.
Thank you.

Our church offers ways of donating through "Digital Giving". You can visit our website www.stjohnshiphay.org.uk to donate online using links on our giving page or, for those with a smartphone, by photo-scanning our QR code seen here. Your generosity, no matter how small, will help us continue our work of worship, service and supporting our community.
Thank you for giving from the heart, and may God bless you abundantly.

Suggestions for your prayers/praise
On this Remembrance Sunday, we come together in gratitude and reflection. We remember with deep respect all those who gave their lives in the service of our country, and those who continue to live with the pain and scars of conflict. We pray for their families, for all who have served, and for those who suffer through war and violence today. May we never take peace for granted. Help us to be people of compassion, forgiveness and understanding, and guide us to work for a world where justice and peace may flourish. Amen.
