

WELCOME TO ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH, SHIPHAY

'A caring fellowship seeking to share the life and love of God'

Sunday 11 October 2026

Welcome to our Harvest Celebration.

Thank you for the generous gifts of tea, coffee, and other non-perishable items.
These will be donated to our local food bank and will help support those in our community who are in need.

Today, we give thanks to God for His generosity and for all the blessings He provides.
We give thanks especially for the food we enjoy each day—for the crops that are grown, the farmers and workers who produce it, and all those who prepare and bring food to our tables.
We are glad you have chosen to come along to this service especially if this is your first visit to St. John's.
We really hope you will stay and join us for Fairtrade coffee and refreshments after the service this morning.

Let us give thanks to God for the harvest and for His abundant love and provision.

The First Reading

Matt.22. 1-14

The parable of the wedding banquet

22 Jesus spoke to them again in parables, saying: ²'The kingdom of heaven is like a king who prepared a wedding banquet for his son. ³He sent his servants to those who had been invited to the banquet to tell them to come, but they refused to come.

⁴'Then he sent some more servants and said, "Tell those who have been invited that I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet."

⁵'But they paid no attention and went off – one to his field, another to his business. ⁶The rest seized his servants, ill-treated them and killed them. ⁷The king was enraged. He sent his army and destroyed those murderers and burned their city.

⁸'Then he said to his servants, "The wedding banquet is ready, but those I invited did not deserve to come. ⁹So go to the street corners and invite to the banquet anyone you find." ¹⁰So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all the people they could find, the bad as well as the good, and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

¹¹'But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing wedding clothes. ¹²He asked, "How did you get in here without wedding clothes, friend?" The man was speechless.

¹³'Then the king told the attendants, "Tie him hand and foot, and throw him outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

¹⁴'For many are invited, but few are chosen.'

Suggestions for your prayers/praise

This Harvest time we can continue to trust in his faithful provisions, sharing his goodness and mercy with all, being generous in everything we do and say, and looking to the Lord of the harvest to supply all our needs. Thanks be to God.

For the gathering in at Harvest Time. For our Harvest Celebrations today and for those who have come to receive a sense of the love of God.

We place the future of St John's into Your loving hands. As the PCC consider possibilities – grant them wisdom, patience and open hearts, guide them making decisions, and help them to trust that, whatever the outcome, You will bring good from it and continue to bless Your Church and its people. May Your will be done, and may we move forward together in faith, hope and love.

Be with all those living with mental illness. Give them strength in difficult moments, hope when they feel lost, and comfort when they feel alone. Help us to show compassion, understanding, and kindness.

Remind us that asking for help is a sign of courage.

May we pause in wonder at the beauty of autumn—the creatures of the wild, the trees, flowers, and falling leaves, the golden, amber, crimson, and russet colours of the earth.

Bless every living thing that shares this season with us.

May we cherish and protect the delicate web of life, and give thanks for the quiet beauty all around us.

May autumn remind us that every colour, creature, and living thing is precious and wonderfully made.

Amen.

A heartfelt thank you to our wonderful Flower Team for making our church look so beautiful for our Harvest celebration.

Your time, creativity, and hard work helped make it a truly special occasion as we came together to celebrate and give thanks.

WELCOME TO ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH, SHIPHAY

'A caring fellowship seeking to share the life and love of God'

Sunday 11 October 2026

Welcome to our Harvest Celebration.

Thank you for the generous gifts of tea, coffee, and other non-perishable items.
These will be donated to our local food bank and will help support those in our community who are in need.

Today, we give thanks to God for His generosity and for all the blessings He provides.
We give thanks especially for the food we enjoy each day—for the crops that are grown, the farmers and workers who produce it, and all those who prepare and bring food to our tables.
We are glad you have chosen to come along to this service especially if this is your first visit to St. John's.
We really hope you will stay and join us for Fairtrade coffee and refreshments after the service this morning.

Let us give thanks to God for the harvest and for His abundant love and provision.

The First Reading

Matt.22. 1-14

The parable of the wedding banquet

22 Jesus spoke to them again in parables, saying: ²'The kingdom of heaven is like a king who prepared a wedding banquet for his son. ³He sent his servants to those who had been invited to the banquet to tell them to come, but they refused to come.

⁴'Then he sent some more servants and said, "Tell those who have been invited that I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet."

⁵'But they paid no attention and went off – one to his field, another to his business. ⁶The rest seized his servants, ill-treated them and killed them. ⁷The king was enraged. He sent his army and destroyed those murderers and burned their city.

⁸'Then he said to his servants, "The wedding banquet is ready, but those I invited did not deserve to come. ⁹So go to the street corners and invite to the banquet anyone you find." ¹⁰So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all the people they could find, the bad as well as the good, and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

¹¹'But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing wedding clothes. ¹²He asked, "How did you get in here without wedding clothes, friend?" The man was speechless.

¹³'Then the king told the attendants, "Tie him hand and foot, and throw him outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

¹⁴'For many are invited, but few are chosen.'

Suggestions for your prayers/praise

This Harvest time we can continue to trust in his faithful provisions, sharing his goodness and mercy with all, being generous in everything we do and say, and looking to the Lord of the harvest to supply all our needs. Thanks be to God.

For the gathering in at Harvest Time. For our Harvest Celebrations today and for those who have come to receive a sense of the love of God.

We place the future of St John's into Your loving hands. As the PCC consider possibilities – grant them wisdom, patience and open hearts, guide them making decisions, and help them to trust that, whatever the outcome, You will bring good from it and continue to bless Your Church and its people. May Your will be done, and may we move forward together in faith, hope and love.

Be with all those living with mental illness. Give them strength in difficult moments, hope when they feel lost, and comfort when they feel alone. Help us to show compassion, understanding, and kindness.

Remind us that asking for help is a sign of courage.

May we pause in wonder at the beauty of autumn—the creatures of the wild, the trees, flowers, and falling leaves, the golden, amber, crimson, and russet colours of the earth.

Bless every living thing that shares this season with us.

May we cherish and protect the delicate web of life, and give thanks for the quiet beauty all around us.

May autumn remind us that every colour, creature, and living thing is precious and wonderfully made.

Amen.

A heartfelt thank you to our wonderful Flower Team for making our church look so beautiful for our Harvest celebration.

Your time, creativity, and hard work helped make it a truly special occasion as we came together to celebrate and give thanks.

WELCOME TO ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH, SHIPHAY

'A caring fellowship seeking to share the life and love of God'

Sunday 11 October 2026

Welcome to our Harvest Celebration.

Thank you for the generous gifts of tea, coffee, and other non-perishable items.
These will be donated to our local food bank and will help support those in our community who are in need.

Today, we give thanks to God for His generosity and for all the blessings He provides.
We give thanks especially for the food we enjoy each day—for the crops that are grown, the farmers and workers who produce it, and all those who prepare and bring food to our tables.
We are glad you have chosen to come along to this service especially if this is your first visit to St. John's.
We really hope you will stay and join us for Fairtrade coffee and refreshments after the service this morning.

Let us give thanks to God for the harvest and for His abundant love and provision.

Music

	We plough the fields and scatter	719
	Harvest Samba
	My Jesus, my Saviour	461
Offertory	Come, ye thankful people, come	133
Communion	Here I am, wholly available
	Jesus, be the centre
	I, the Lord of sea and sky	332

The First Reading

Matt.22. 1-14

The parable of the wedding banquet

22 Jesus spoke to them again in parables, saying: ²'The kingdom of heaven is like a king who prepared a wedding banquet for his son. ³He sent his servants to those who had been invited to the banquet to tell them to come, but they refused to come.

⁴'Then he sent some more servants and said, "Tell those who have been invited that I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet."

⁵'But they paid no attention and went off – one to his field, another to his business. ⁶The rest seized his servants, ill-treated them and killed them. ⁷The king was enraged. He sent his army and destroyed those murderers and burned their city.

⁸'Then he said to his servants, "The wedding banquet is ready, but those I invited did not deserve to come. ⁹So go to the street corners and invite to the banquet anyone you find." ¹⁰So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all the people they could find, the bad as well as the good, and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

¹¹'But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing wedding clothes. ¹²He asked, "How did you get in here without wedding clothes, friend?" The man was speechless.

¹³'Then the king told the attendants, "Tie him hand and foot, and throw him outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

¹⁴'For many are invited, but few are chosen.'

Suggestions for your prayers/praise

This Harvest time we can continue to trust in his faithful provisions, sharing his goodness and mercy with all, being generous in everything we do and say, and looking to the Lord of the harvest to supply all our needs. Thanks be to God.

For the gathering in at Harvest Time. For our Harvest Celebrations today and for those who have come to receive a sense of the love of God.

We place the future of St John's into Your loving hands. As the PCC consider possibilities – grant them wisdom, patience and open hearts, guide them making decisions, and help them to trust that, whatever the outcome, You will bring good from it and continue to bless Your Church and its people. May Your will be done, and may we move forward together in faith, hope and love.

Be with all those living with mental illness. Give them strength in difficult moments, hope when they feel lost, and comfort when they feel alone. Help us to show compassion, understanding, and kindness.

Remind us that asking for help is a sign of courage.

May we pause in wonder at the beauty of autumn—the creatures of the wild, the trees, flowers, and falling leaves, the golden, amber, crimson, and russet colours of the earth.

Bless every living thing that shares this season with us.

May we cherish and protect the delicate web of life, and give thanks for the quiet beauty all around us.

May autumn remind us that every colour, creature, and living thing is precious and wonderfully made.

Amen.

A heartfelt thank you to our wonderful Flower Team for making our church look so beautiful for our Harvest celebration.

Your time, creativity, and hard work helped make it a truly special occasion as we came together to celebrate and give thanks.

May we pause in wonder at the beauty of autumn—the creatures of the wild, the trees, flowers, and falling leaves, the golden, amber, crimson, and russet colours of the earth.

Bless every living thing that shares this season with us.

May we cherish and protect the delicate web of life, and give thanks for the quiet beauty all around us.

May autumn remind us that every colour, creature, and living thing is precious and wonderfully made.

Amen.

A heartfelt thank you to our wonderful Flower Team for making our church look so beautiful for our Harvest celebration.

Your time, creativity, and hard work helped make it a truly special occasion as we came together to celebrate and give thanks.

WELCOME TO ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH, SHIPHAY

'A caring fellowship seeking to share the life and love of God'

Sunday 11 October 2026

Welcome to our Harvest Celebration.

Thank you for the generous gifts of tea, coffee, and other non-perishable items.
These will be donated to our local food bank and will help support those in our community who are in need.

Today, we give thanks to God for His generosity and for all the blessings He provides.
We give thanks especially for the food we enjoy each day—for the crops that are grown, the farmers and workers who produce it, and all those who prepare and bring food to our tables.
We are glad you have chosen to come along to this service especially if this is your first visit to St. John's.
We really hope you will stay and join us for Fairtrade coffee and refreshments after the service this morning.

Let us give thanks to God for the harvest and for His abundant love and provision.

Communion	Here I am, wholly available
	Jesus, be the centre
	I, the Lord of sea and sky	332

The First Reading

Matt.22. 1-14

The parable of the wedding banquet

22 Jesus spoke to them again in parables, saying: ²'The kingdom of heaven is like a king who prepared a wedding banquet for his son. ³He sent his servants to those who had been invited to the banquet to tell them to come, but they refused to come.

⁴'Then he sent some more servants and said, "Tell those who have been invited that I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet."

⁵'But they paid no attention and went off – one to his field, another to his business. ⁶The rest seized his servants, ill-treated them and killed them. ⁷The king was enraged. He sent his army and destroyed those murderers and burned their city.

⁸'Then he said to his servants, "The wedding banquet is ready, but those I invited did not deserve to come. ⁹So go to the street corners and invite to the banquet anyone you find." ¹⁰So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all the people they could find, the bad as well as the good, and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

¹¹'But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing wedding clothes. ¹²He asked, "How did you get in here without wedding clothes, friend?" The man was speechless.

¹³'Then the king told the attendants, "Tie him hand and foot, and throw him outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

¹⁴'For many are invited, but few are chosen.'

Suggestions for your prayers/praise

This Harvest time we can continue to trust in his faithful provisions, sharing his goodness and mercy with all, being generous in everything we do and say, and looking to the Lord of the harvest to supply all our needs. Thanks be to God.

For the gathering in at Harvest Time. For our Harvest Celebrations today and for those who have come to receive a sense of the love of God.

We place the future of St John's into Your loving hands. As the PCC consider possibilities – grant them wisdom, patience and open hearts, guide them making decisions, and help them to trust that, whatever the outcome, You will bring good from it and continue to bless Your Church and its people. May Your will be done, and may we move forward together in faith, hope and love.

Be with all those living with mental illness. Give them strength in difficult moments, hope when they feel lost, and comfort when they feel alone. Help us to show compassion, understanding, and kindness.

Remind us that asking for help is a sign of courage.

We place the future of St John's into Your loving hands. As the PCC consider possibilities – grant them wisdom, patience and open hearts, guide them making decisions, and help them to trust that, whatever the outcome, You will bring good from it and continue to bless Your Church and its people. May Your will be done, and may we move forward together in faith, hope and love.

Be with all those living with mental illness. Give them strength in difficult moments, hope when they feel lost, and comfort when they feel alone. Help us to show compassion, understanding, and kindness.

Remind us that asking for help is a sign of courage.

May we pause in wonder at the beauty of autumn—the creatures of the wild, the trees, flowers, and falling leaves, the golden, amber, crimson, and russet colours of the earth.

Bless every living thing that shares this season with us.

May we cherish and protect the delicate web of life, and give thanks for the quiet beauty all around us.

May autumn remind us that every colour, creature, and living thing is precious and wonderfully made.

Amen.

A heartfelt thank you to our wonderful Flower Team for making our church look so beautiful for our Harvest celebration.

Your time, creativity, and hard work helped make it a truly special occasion as we came together to celebrate and give thanks.

WELCOME TO ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH, SHIPHAY

'A caring fellowship seeking to share the life and love of God'

Sunday 11 October 2026

Welcome to our Harvest Celebration.

Thank you for the generous gifts of tea, coffee, and other non-perishable items.
These will be donated to our local food bank and will help support those in our community who are in need.

Today, we give thanks to God for His generosity and for all the blessings He provides.
We give thanks especially for the food we enjoy each day—for the crops that are grown, the farmers and workers who produce it, and all those who prepare and bring food to our tables.
We are glad you have chosen to come along to this service especially if this is your first visit to St. John's.
We really hope you will stay and join us for Fairtrade coffee and refreshments after the service this morning.

Let us give thanks to God for the harvest and for His abundant love and provision.

The First Reading

Matt.22. 1-14

The parable of the wedding banquet

22 Jesus spoke to them again in parables, saying: ²'The kingdom of heaven is like a king who prepared a wedding banquet for his son. ³He sent his servants to those who had been invited to the banquet to tell them to come, but they refused to come.

⁴'Then he sent some more servants and said, "Tell those who have been invited that I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet."

⁵'But they paid no attention and went off – one to his field, another to his business. ⁶The rest seized his servants, ill-treated them and killed them. ⁷The king was enraged. He sent his army and destroyed those murderers and burned their city.

⁸'Then he said to his servants, "The wedding banquet is ready, but those I invited did not deserve to come. ⁹So go to the street corners and invite to the banquet anyone you find." ¹⁰So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all the people they could find, the bad as well as the good, and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

¹¹'But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing wedding clothes. ¹²He asked, "How did you get in here without wedding clothes, friend?" The man was speechless.

¹³'Then the king told the attendants, "Tie him hand and foot, and throw him outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

¹⁴'For many are invited, but few are chosen.'

Suggestions for your prayers/praise

This Harvest time we can continue to trust in his faithful provisions, sharing his goodness and mercy with all, being generous in everything we do and say, and looking to the Lord of the harvest to supply all our needs. Thanks be to God.

For the gathering in at Harvest Time. For our Harvest Celebrations today and for those who have come to receive a sense of the love of God.

We place the future of St John's into Your loving hands. As the PCC consider possibilities – grant them wisdom, patience and open hearts, guide them making decisions, and help them to trust that, whatever the outcome, You will bring good from it and continue to bless Your Church and its people. May Your will be done, and may we move forward together in faith, hope and love.

Be with all those living with mental illness. Give them strength in difficult moments, hope when they feel lost, and comfort when they feel alone. Help us to show compassion, understanding, and kindness.

Remind us that asking for help is a sign of courage.

May we pause in wonder at the beauty of autumn—the creatures of the wild, the trees, flowers, and falling leaves, the golden, amber, crimson, and russet colours of the earth.

Bless every living thing that shares this season with us.

May we cherish and protect the delicate web of life, and give thanks for the quiet beauty all around us.

May autumn remind us that every colour, creature, and living thing is precious and wonderfully made.

Amen.

A heartfelt thank you to our wonderful Flower Team for making our church look so beautiful for our Harvest celebration.

Your time, creativity, and hard work helped make it a truly special occasion as we came together to celebrate and give thanks.

WELCOME TO ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH, SHIPHAY

'A caring fellowship seeking to share the life and love of God'

Sunday 11 October 2026

Welcome to our Harvest Celebration.

Thank you for the generous gifts of tea, coffee, and other non-perishable items. These will be donated to our local food bank and will help support those in our community who are in need.

Today, we give thanks to God for His generosity and for all the blessings He provides. We give thanks especially for the food we enjoy each day—for the crops that are grown, the farmers and workers who produce it, and all those who prepare and bring food to our tables. We are glad you have chosen to come along to this service especially if this is your first visit to St. John's. We really hope you will stay and join us for Fairtrade coffee and refreshments after the service this morning.

Let us give thanks to God for the harvest and for His abundant love and provision.

The First Reading

Matt.22. 1-14

The parable of the wedding banquet

22 Jesus spoke to them again in parables, saying: ² 'The kingdom of heaven is like a king who prepared a wedding banquet for his son. ³ He sent his servants to those who had been invited to the banquet to tell them to come, but they refused to come.

⁴ 'Then he sent some more servants and said, "Tell those who have been invited that I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet."

⁵ 'But they paid no attention and went off – one to his field, another to his business. ⁶ The rest seized his servants, ill-treated them and killed them. ⁷ The king was enraged. He sent his army and destroyed those murderers and burned their city.

⁸ 'Then he said to his servants, "The wedding banquet is ready, but those I invited did not deserve to come. ⁹ So go to the street corners and invite to the banquet anyone you find." ¹⁰ So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all the people they could find, the bad as well as the good, and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

¹³ 'Then the king told the attendants, "Tie him hand and foot, and throw him outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

¹⁴ 'For many are invited, but few are chosen.'
